Key Updates – Shared Services

eVB customer calls are now handled by Bank of Baroda contact centres. Account opening for eDB and Trade & Forex Operations for both eDB & eVB have been completely centralized at Gift City/ Bangalore. Pension operations shall be migrated for eDB & eVB by March 2020.

Agriculture Operations for amalgamated entity has been centralized for all branches at Gift City. This has contributed to cost optimization and enhanced customer experience.

The centralized shared services has been focusing on 24/7 Operations, cross-selling in trade and forex transactions through back-end set-up and prompt issue resolution which leads to retention of customers. Also, through 50 – 55% improvement in productivity.

Through centralization, it is estimated that in FY20 there would be INR 150 crore absolute cost saving and INR 700 crore+ of incremental sales.

All operational units under BGSS has been ISO certified following the successful completion of third phase.

Shared Services has deployed automated tracking & monitoring solution for effective reconciliation for Trade transactions.

Following the 2nd phase of centralisation, the Bank branches can focus on core sales, services and decision activities.
