Global markets were volatile as Russia-Ukraine tensions continue to build. As a result, while demand for safe-haven dollar and gold rose, oil prices slipped. Global equities and treasury yields await further direction from FOMC. Investors expect Fed to hike rates ~3-4 times this years and also announce trimming down of its ~US$ 8tn balance sheet.

- Global indices closed mixed. FTSE (2.6%) and Nifty (2.7%) fell the most. Investors are awaiting Fed policy guidance and also monitoring rising tensions between Russia and Ukraine. However, equity markets in Japan and US rose. Domestic equity markets are trading further lower today, in line with other Asian stocks.
