

NRI murder: 'Guilty will be brought to book'

Shika, Rakesh remain prime suspects; allegations of political influence on investigation baseless, says DGP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Vijayawada

KRISHNA district police have not been able to ascertain why the murder of 55-year-old NRI businessman Chigurupati Jayaram was committed and who the culprit was, even after four days of the crime.

The NRI, a resident of Florida, USA, used to visit Hyderabad once a month to take care of his businesses. He was the director of Coastal Bank, owned a Pharma company — Zenotech Laboratories — in Hyderabad and a few other businesses in Andhra Pradesh.

He had also previously been the Managing Director of a vernacular TV channel, Express TV (now closed).

On January 31, he was found murdered in his car near Ithavaram village of Nandigama mandal.

Though the police department has hinted at the involvement of Jayaram's niece Pulavarti Madhuri Chowdary alias Shika and her ex-boyfriend Rakesh Reddy in the murder and taken them into custody, they could not gather solid evidence against them.

However, according to some reports, Rakesh confessed to the crime during interrogation and told the police that the plan to murder Jayaram was hatched at his house in Hyderabad.

It has also been established that he went to Shika's house a day before the murder. "The case is under investigation.

Though the circumstantial evidence pointed at the involvement of Rakesh and Shika, we need substantial proof to carry on our investigation," said Krishna District SP Sarvashreshth Tripathi.

The two suspects and three of Rakesh's friends are still being questioned, the SP said. "New characters and their relationship with the deceased are being unearthed. The investigation will be completed soon," SP added.

State Director General of Police (DGP) RP Thakur expressed confidence over the investigation being wrapped up soon and the accused being brought to book.

"There is no political pressure on the police. The allegations of political influence on the investigation are baseless. Whoever is involved in the crime will be arrested and punished," the DGP added.

Meanwhile, Krishna police reportedly took a decision to handover the case to Telangana police as the incident happened in Hyderabad.

New characters and their relationship with the deceased businessman are being unearthed. The investigation will be completed soon

30th Road Safety Week begins in Vijayawada

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Vijayawada

DEPUTY Transport Commissioner E Meera Prasad released a brochure to mark the beginning of the 30th Road Safety Week, which is being observed to promote awareness among people about the importance of adhering to traffic rules and safety norms. The theme for this year's week-long campaign is 'Sadak Suraksha-Jeevan Raksha'.

Participating in a programme organised by Krishna District Lorry Owners Association (KDLOA) in the city on Monday, Meera Prasad said that accident rate across the district has reduced gradually due to the proactive measures taken by the transport department, and with the support of the police.

Over the years, the number of vehicles plying on the roads has increased, thus making the Road Safety Week more relevant than before, he said.

People will be made aware of the safety measures they should follow to avoid accidents through organising Burra katha, distributing pamphlets and conducting rallies and seminars across the city.

As part of the awareness programme, officials will give Powerpoint presentations and play animated video clips on the theme, Meera Prasad said.

KDLOA president AV Rama Rao and AP Lorry Owners Association general secretary YV Eswara Rao were present on the occasion.

Ticket scam: 'EO should have filed police complaint'

Rahu Ketu Pooja from Wednesday

Sri Durga Malleswara Swamy Varla Devasthanam will conduct a new Arjitha seva, 'Rahu Ketu' pooja, from February 6. According to temple officials, the pooja will be performed on the vacant land near Nataraja Swamy temple during Rahu Kalam everyday. It costs ₹1,000 for two devotees to have the pooja performed. Devotees will be offered five different types of prasadam

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Vijayawada

KANAKA Durga Temple Executive Officer V Koteswaramma on Monday handed over the task of issuing darshan tickets to the regular staff after allegations of irregularities surfaced against contract employees.

A few contract employees had issued several ₹300 darshan tickets with the same serial number to devotees and the issue was reported to the temple EO. Following this, she had intimidated the One Town Police about the incident but she failed to lodge a complaint against the guilty, according to employees of the temple.

A section of the employees questioned as to why the EO did not file a police complaint, and recalled how former EO A Surya Kumari had suspended an attendant, N Chandrasekar, for reselling ₹100 darshan tickets of the same serial number to devotees in December 2017.

"How can Koteswaramma take the ticket scam issue so lightly? The scam has caused a huge loss to the devasthanam revenue. Measures should be taken by the EO to prevent the recurrence of such incidents," a senior employee of the temple said.
